09- This Is War

Don't you know the battle's raging,
And you've got to join the fight.
There's an army of the darkness
And an army of the Light.
There's a side that fights for Satan
And a side that's for the Lord.
On this battle field there are no rusty swords!
It seems strange so many fall back,
When the victory has been won.
You just need to ask yourself
Which side you're on
